The 4th Annual CYBER2028 Futurist Symposium is the west coast's premier cyber futurist event.

This year's keynote speaker is Toomas Hendrik Ilves, Former President of Estonia and the European Parliament. President Ilves led Estonia through the massive state-sponsored cyber-attacks of 2007 that ushered in a new era of information warfare. President Ilves has served as chair of the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Cyber Security since 2014 and co-chaired the Global Futures Council on Blockchain Technology since 2016.

CYBER2028 will also feature a distinguished panel of cyber experts discussing the future of state-sponsored cyber attacks looking 10 years down the digital road, including:

- COLONEL PETE DILLON, United States Marine Corps, Assistant Chief of Staff, G6, I Marine Expeditionary Force
- SUPERVISORY SPECIAL AGENT JOHN CARUTHERS, National Security Cyber Squad, FBI San Diego
- MACY DENNIS, Chairman, San Diego CISO Round Table and Chief Security Officer, EVOTEK
- SABRINA FEVE, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Computer Hacking and Intellectual Property Coordinator
