

InfraGard Los Angeles, Pechanga Resort & Casino, and C-T Watch, Incorporated present

TERRORISM PRE-INCIDENT INDICATORS (pii's) & SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY REPORTING (SAR) FOR THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY

NOVEMBER 20, 2017

Session 1: 830am—1130am

Session 2: 1pm—4pm

CLASS DESCRIPTION: This briefing will focus on threats to hotels, casinos, special events and large crowds in general. Current TTP's (Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures) or "tradecraft" that potential terrorists or criminal elements may use in order to achieve their final objectives. The briefing objectives are: 1) Raise awareness to new tactics currently utilized by terrorists and criminals, 2) How Suspicious Activity Reporting (SAR) works, 3) Pre-Incident Indicators (PII's).

TOPICS: Attack cycle (Criminal and terrorist); Attack timeline; Pre-incident Indicators (PII's); Behavioral Indicators & Suspicious Activities (hotel specific); Advanced Situational Awareness (ASA); Suspicious Activity Reporting (SAR) Process

INSTRUCTOR: Recently retired CIA Operations officer Robert Dougherty. Mr. Dougherty has worked internationally as well as domestically with both the CIA and FBI (JTTF) in fusion centers across the United States tracking domestic and international terrorists.

COURSE BENEFITS: Counter-Terrorism Situational Awareness.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Hotel Management & Front-Line Staff (room service, housekeeping, special events planners, concierge, front desk, valet, restaurant staff, kitchen staff). Private sector security, Public Safety (Law/Health/Fire), Terrorism Liaison Officers (TLO's), Infrastructure Liaison Officers (ILO), Medical Liaison Officers (MLO's), stakeholders, and Studio/ PR / VIP representatives.

LOCATION: Temecula, CA. Exact location & other event details will be emailed to approved registrants on 11-17.

Click HERE to register!

